

Tuxedo Junction

M: E. Hawkins, W. Johnson, J. Dash
Arr. Schmidt-Mechau

Steady beat

S
A T
B

boobbab boob bab      boobbab boob bab      boobbab boob bab

boobbab boob bab      boobbab boob bab      boobbab boob bab

boobbab boob bab      boobbab boob bab      boobbab boob bab

It's a junction, it's a junction, it's a junction, it's a junction, it's a junction, it's a junction,

7

boo ba    boo bab Way down south      in Bir - mingham, I mean south      in Al-
drive      or walk    for miles to get jive,      that south-

boo ba    boo bab Way down south      in Bir - mingham, I mean south      in Al-
drive      or walk    for miles to get jive,      that south-

boo ba    boo bab Way down south      in Bir - mingham, I mean south      in Al-
drive      or walk    for miles to get jive,      that south-

it's a junction, it's a junction.      Way down south in      Bir-ming - ham, I mean down south in They all drive or      walk for miles, just to get jive that 12

- a-bam's an old place      where peo - ple go to dance      thenight a-way.      Theyall
- ernstyle, slow jive      that makes      youwant to dance      tillbreak of day.

- a-bam's an old place      where peo - ple go to dance      thenight a-way.      Theyall
- ernstyle, slow jive      that makes      youwant to dance      tillbreak of day.

- a-bam's an old place      where peo - ple go to dance      thenight a-way.      Theyall
- ernstyle, slow jive      that makes      youwant to dance      tillbreak of day.

A - la - ba - ma, there's an old place      wherethese peo-ple      go to dancethe      nighta-way.
southern style, that sou-thernslow, that      makes you want to      danceun - til the